

Fiction or “pre-vision”

Today, March 26 2020, we have now reached over half a million individuals infected with the Covid-19 virus, having already provoked the death of over 22,000 of these. Our modern communications are keeping our whole planet informed... and this pandemic doesn't seem to be slowing down by any means.

Where we live, a small community of a few hundred, only the grocery store and the post office are still open. However, each has a sign outside, one telling people with symptoms not to enter and the other spelling out the criteria to be allowed access. All this submitted to the goodwill of the people, without coercion for the time being. I hope things will soon get better. Many are troubled by the current events, but I want to reassure you, there is no need to panic. As of late, there has only been a rush for toilet paper, but we need to consider what could happen if essentials were scarce; violence might break out here and there. But, aside from a few isolated incidents, we are still far from that, and we probably won't get there either. But imagine...

(fiction and most unlikely)... the virus mutates and becomes even more lethal and that only a newly developed vaccine can stop a complete worldwide infection. We would then have the whole world population vaccinated making every individual immune and non-contagious. What relief! Then the two signs mentioned above would be modified to read “enter only if you have been vaccinated”. And to help clearly identify those who have been, they would have been marked on the hand or the forehead with the vaccine lot number administered to them, all this controlled at the point of sale... possible? ... yes but most unlikely!

(pre-vision)... Notice this Bible verse: “He causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in (or upon) their hand, or in (or upon) their foreheads: and that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark...” (Revelation 13:16) ...and the tragic and eternal consequences of this are described in Revelation 14:9-10.

Coincidence? My prayer is that all we are going through right now might soon be over with the least possible negative consequences. My objective is not to trouble anyone but want the reader to realize the frailty of our systems and the proximity of the events prophesied in the Bible, the Word of God. Jesus said : “Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away” (Matthew 24:35). What the Lord says here is that all his word declares will come to pass, it is absolutely sure.

It is high time to turn to the Lord Jesus. If you have not already, receive Him as your Saviour now before having to face a more dramatic reality. He came into the world to offer himself as a sacrifice for sinners like you and me, to receive in our stead the chastisement we deserve. He alone forever saves those who put their trust in Him. The unprecedented events we are experiencing now clearly warn us of the more tragic events on the horizon. We plead with you, hasten and come to the Saviour who loves you, the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God who gave Himself to die on the cross for you and me and to deliver us from the coming wrath (1 Thessalonians 1:10)!
