

Unaware or unconcerned?

It may be possible you are unaware of an imminent danger. But if informed of it, you do not pay any attention to it, you would rather be careless and unconcerned than unaware.

An exemple: imagine that before the departure of the Titanic, whose terrible fate we all are aware of, we inform the passengers that this gigantic ship will not make its destination but sink on the way provoking a tragic loss of life. Someone even comes to you and pleads with you not to get on board. The careless and unconcerned gets on board anyway neglecting the dire warning and bares the consequences.

As to what concerns us, it is manifest that we are sailing towards a great storm, of a magnitude of this world has never seen, the Bible calls it the great tribulation. Perhaps you were unaware? Mercifully, you are now being warned directly.

Know that the forsaking of the fear of God does not annul His existence; we may invent gods, to our liking, but that will not alter in any way what God is in reality. He is light, He is love and always thrice holy (Isaiah 6: 3) and unbelief will not spare any from His wrath.

Whether we believe it or not, man is a moral being with a God given conscience of good and evil. And even if man adapts or dulls his conscience with the current modern values, God's standard as to good and evil before Him will never change, just as He never changes.

Know therefore that many things acceptable and even made lawful in the societies of men today will never be that before Him and that He will bring all these things into judgment; every one of us will give an account of himself to God (Romans 14:12) wether you like it or not, believe it or not!

Perhaps you were not aware? Don't be careless or unconcerned! God is light and warns us that, through our forsaking of Him and our darkened practices, we deserve His judgment. God is love and in his love He delivered His own Son, the Lord Jesus Christ to judgment and death to spare us from the chastisement we deserve and reconcile us to Himself.

We plead with you, as you are no longer unaware, be not unconcerned, but «be ye reconciled to God » (2 Corinthians 5:20). And you can do that right now by repenting of your sins and calling on the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ as your Saviour (Romans 10:9, 13).
